

How To Stay In Contact And Other Useful Resources

Email and the World Wide Web (www) is one of our most useful tools to keep in touch with the community. Following is a small sampling of resources the community uses to stay in touch through out the year. Email and the internet have had a huge role in making Burning Man and its local communities what they are.

AZBurners

This is the main Arizona e-mail list. It is on topic to Burning Man and related subjects. Events, culture, art, community, chat, building, etc. are all part of this list. It is a major part of our local community

Arizona Announce List

This is an announcement only list that is only used to announce major events To join send a blank e-mail to In the future there may also be a Phoenix announcement list.

Off-Topic

This is a list for things not related to Burning Man or the local community. Political discussions, how to, services, etc are often on this list.

Toast-Town - AZ Regional Burn

The list for Toast! The Arizona Regional Burn that takes place in April. to join and look at

The JRS

The Jack Rabbit Speaks is the Burning Man's Announcement list and an important list to be on. It's typically one or two issues a month.

How To Stay In Contact And Other Useful Resources

Burning Man.com

There is considerable information here including access to the e-playa. The eplaya. A web based bulletin board for Burning Man at large.

Survival Guide

This is some very key information on how to survive the playa. It is considered required reading.

Burning Man is different and it can put a lot of stress on relationships, this paper has good advice on how to maintain them.

First Timers Guide

First time you have gone? Read this.

The Regional Network

A ton of information in local areas as well as who to contact in each region.